PUBLIC BUSINESS FROM THE FLOOR

There was no public business from the floor.

PUBLIC WORKSHOP

- a. Housing Element Update and Scoping Meeting

Community Development Director Doan read the form of notice.

Community Development Director Doan and Economic Development Manager McCaleb gave the staff report for the Housing Element Update, followed by a presentation from Christine Lan with Meridian Consultants for the environmental scoping meeting.

Commissioner Wilson asked about the number of accessory dwelling units (ADU) in the City and stated the need to educate people about ADUs on future housing surveys. Wilson also asked staff about California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) streamlining pursuant to SB 35.

Community Development Director Doan noted that no streamlining requests had been received to date, but future affordable housing projects would likely qualify.

Commissioner Bell talked about the funding changes for affordable housing and the need to evaluate each housing site using detailed tax credit criteria.

There being no public comments, Chair Richárd closed the public hearing.

Commissioner Parker expressed concern about financing a mixed use project, and stated that there may be business tax credits and federal programs available. Commissioner Parker asked how the City is engaging small businesses to complete the housing survey.

Director Doan outlined the steps that staff have already taken to publicize the survey, and noted that outreach to the Chamber of Commerce could happen at an upcoming meeting of the Chamber.

Commissioner Wilson asked about the CEQA consultant about streamlining.

Tony Locacciato, with Meridian Consultants stated that CEQA streamlining, along with other tools may be available for the right kind of project.

Commissioner Wilson asked about Vehicle Miles Traveled and their impact.

Tony Locacciato stated that using Vehicle Miles Traveled might be helpful for housing projects.

Commissioner Bell reiterated the need to drill down on site specifics to determine if project sites would be eligible for tax credits, and also expressed interest in other funding sources such as infill infrastructure grants and the Affordable Housing and Sustainable Communities Program.

CONSENT CALENDAR

It was moved by Commissioner Wilson and seconded by Commissioner Parker to receive and file the Consent Calendar.

The motion carried 5/0.
