CITY OF SIGNAL HILL MOURNING LOSS OF COMMISSIONER TERRY ROGERS

SIGNAL HILL, CA - The City of Signal Hill is mourning the loss of Parks and Recreation Commissioner Terry Rogers, a long-time champion and advocate of the Signal Hill community.

Commissioner Rogers was a true community leader, serving on the boards of the Signal Hill Police Foundation, Signal Hill Community Foundation, Signal Hill Chamber of Commerce, Signal Hill Historical Society, and Friends of the Signal Hill Library. Her community service also extended to the Signal Hill Rotary, Salvation Army, and Rock for Vet's Music is the Remedy.

Mayor Keir Jones shared the following statement:

"Commissioner Terry Rogers had an incredible impact on our City. Terry was a tireless community champion who continuously went above and beyond for her community. Her passion for serving others will not be forgotten. Our deepest condolences go to Commissioner Rogers' family and all those she touched throughout her remarkable life."

The City Council will adjourn the meeting of February 8, 2022 in her honor.
