City of Signal Hill Seeks Community Members to Join Diversity Coalition Committee

SIGNAL HILL – The City of Signal Hill is seeking community members of all backgrounds to join its Diversity Coalition Committee (DCC). The Diversity Coalition Committee shall examine the City’s current policies and engage the community on various aspects of race and equity as part of an evolving effort to address systemic racism and bias in the policies and practices of municipal government.

The main goals of the DCC will be education, facilitation, and continuous improvement. The draft Race and Equity Framework will serve as a foundation for the efforts of the DCC, and all City efforts to further equality, opportunity, and justice for all members of the Signal Hill community.

This is a volunteer position. Applicants must be either a City of Signal Hill resident or business representative. Meetings will be held via video / teleconference for the immediate foreseeable future. Members will need access to a computer with webcam and audio capabilities.

To apply, and for more information, please visit <https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/signalhill>. The application deadline is Monday, September 7, 2020 at 4:30 p.m. If you need assistance with the application process or have questions, please contact Deputy City Clerk Kimberly Boles at 562-989-7305.

The City of Signal Hill strongly values diversity, equity, and inclusion. The City is committed to addressing institutional racism and implicit bias, working in unity with the community, creating a thoughtful and inclusive dialogue, and developing an action plan through data, results, and outcomes. For up-to-date information on the City’s journey through this process, please visit us online at cityofsignalhill.org.
